Section 3.

Provided that all ordinances adopted prior to January 21, 2011 and in direct conflict with the ordinances in such Code of Ordinances, that portion or section in direct conflict shall be deemed repealed from and after the effective date of this ordinance except as they are included and reordained in whole or in part in such Code; provided however, such repeal shall not affect any offense committed or penalty incurred or any right established prior to the effective date of this ordinance, nor shall such repeal affect the provisions of ordinances levying taxes, appropriating money, annexing or detaching territory, establishing franchises, or granting special rights to certain persons, authorizing public improvements, authorizing the issuance of bonds or borrowing of money, authorizing the purchase or sale of real or personal property, granting or accepting easements, plat or dedication of land to public use, vacating or setting the boundaries of streets or other public places; nor shall such repeal affect any other ordinance of a temporary or special nature or pertaining to subjects not in conflict with or covered by the Code. Provided further that all ordinances dealing with Title 28 Zoning, and Title 27 Subdivision are restatements of existing ordinances and do not contain any amendments that would require an additional public hearing. Further provided, that all penalty ordinances included in the Code are also restatements of existing ordinances and no additional publication of said ordinances shall be required.

Section 4.

Such Code shall be deemed published as of the day of its adoption and approval by the Board of Commissioners of Jefferson County, Indiana, and the Auditor is hereby authorized and ordered to file a copy of such Code of Ordinances in the Offices of the Auditor, Assessor, Clerk, Recorder and Surveyor.

2012 S-1

Section 5. Such Code shall be in full force and effect as provided in Section 6, and such Code shall be presumptive evidence in all courts and places of the ordinance and all provisions, sections, penalties and regulations therein contained and of the date of passage, and that the same is properly signed, attested, recorded, and approved and that any public hearings and notices thereof as required by law have been given.

Section 6. This ordinance is declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the peace, health, safety and general welfare of the people of this municipality, and shall take effect immediately upon passage.

ADOPTED by the Jefferson County Board of Commissioners, Jefferson County, Indiana, This 14th day of April, 2011.
