

IMPORTANT NOTICE

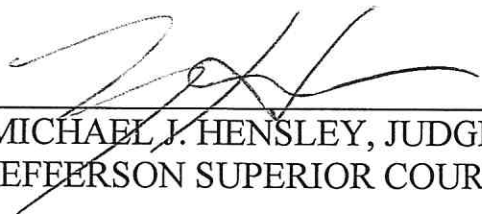

As a person with a pending criminal case in this Court please keep in mind that you will always have a court date where you must appear in Court.

You have just had your initial appearance hearing. You have been given the date of your next hearing which is a pretrial conference. You must personally appear for this conference. Failure to appear may lead to a warrant being issued for your arrest.

If you have been appointed counsel it is your obligation to contact this person and meet with them well before the date of your pretrial. Your counsel will contact you if you remain incarcerated.

It is your obligation to stay in touch with your attorney and notify them of any changes in address or phone number.

It is your responsibility to always know the date of your subsequent hearings and to be in attendance. If you are unable to reach your attorney call my office at 812-265-8914 and my staff will give you the date.

MICHAEL J. HENSLEY, JUDGE
JEFFERSON SUPERIOR COURT
